

World Oceans Day, June 8th
Cape May, NJ
From the source to the sea

Water is a sacred gift, fundamental and indispensable for sustaining all life. It's the life-giving fluid of our planet needed by all organisms, humans, animals, and plants alike. Our very existence is intimately connected with - and dependent upon - the quality of water.

Celebrate Water where the river meets the sea
Join us in promoting our sacred living waters

Cape May, Lower Township, NJ, Celebrations June 6th—8th
Includes:

- Ceremonial paddle & boat parade from Higbees Beach on the south jetty of Cape May Canal to Sunset Beach at the end of Sunset Blvd. Launch 10 AM June 8th
- Music, dance, storytelling, drumming
- Opportunities for creating partnerships for “Special Protections Waters” for the tidewaters region of the Delaware River and implementing the “Rebirth of America Development Plan.”
- Creating awareness regarding the global state of water
- Info on the Indigenous Peoples Kyoto Water Declaration.

All ships, boats and any floating craft are invited to join this day.

Contact:

Carrie Martin, o.beautifulmoon@gmail.com, 610-554-6689

Richard McNutt, mcnuttrh10@yahoo.com, 215-766-8668

**PLEASE, LET US KNOW YOUR IDEAS & HOW YOU WOULD LIKE TO PARTICIPATE.****